Hey there beautiful –

Welcome!

An introduction

(aka a little "Hello")

from my soul to yours before we dive deeper into the Tarot ...

{ INTRODUCTION }

A big, beautiful welcome to you! If you're reading these pages then this tarot deck has been created for you - the starry-eyed dreamer, the curious soul, the Spiritually connected, the newly awakened and self-realised modern Mystic. An incredible journey is about to unfold as you venture into the Spiritual realms with your new companion - The Lucid Dreams Beginners Tarot Deck - to help guide you every step of the way.

These cards have been inspired, channeled, created and brought life to alchemise the wisdom of the Tarot, your intuitive abilities with gentle guiding prompts to nudge you in the right direction (to assist you opening the gateway to higher vibrational Knowing.)

Lucid Dreams Tarot was conceived from the desires of my younger self, who was ready and eagerly awaiting guidance in the early stages of my spiritual journey. This guidebook is created in the way I wish (like, seriously really WISHED) someone would have explained it all to me.

I trust that the energy focused and poured into these tools is reflected in the quality of knowledge, intuitive development and spiritual expansion you receive in return.

May these tools help your North Star shine bright enough to light up the path before you, so that you may walk forwards with confidence, ease and certainty.

Everything happens for a reason, and there is a higher calling that guided you towards this deck. You had energetically called these cards into your life, long before the physical manifestation of them arriving in your hands. Law of Attraction is one of the underlying laws of the vast Universe we live in and therefore responds promptly to every point of attraction you energetically project. So, whether you were looking for further daily guidance, the next step in your spiritual development, or seeking new ways to explore your intuitive gifts, these spiritual tools have made their way to you. They were therefore created for you the very moment the concept was divinely inspired within my own being. Just take a moment to appreciate the wonderment and magic of this co- creation you, I and the Divine have had together! Uh! I love it!

{ ABOUT YOUR CARDS }

The Lucid Dreams Beginners Tarot has 78 beautifully designed cards with dreamy artworks to help you open the gateway between your intuitive abilities, individual card meanings and the energies surrounding your spreads. Working with these Tarot cards facilitates a loving, safe channel for spiritual wisdom to come through for both wide-eyed novices and those already working with their intuitive gifts.

Tarot cards are spiritually sacred tools used to connect with angels, spirit guides, the Higher Self, Deities or the 'God' of your choice. They are entirely safe, and only work with pure light, and high vibrational energies. As the vibration of your question, thought pattern or heart energy imparts into the deck, you will draw the card(s) that match this vibrational frequency.

It's important to note that Tarot Cards act as a mirror. They are incredibly empowering tools that perpetually assist us in developing our greater sense of self-awareness. These cards are a language and system beyond words — they are Universal symbols and energetic messages that transcend time, space and human separation that helps us to explore our individual and collectively shared experiences here on Earth. It's a way of piecing together the stories that have created and shaped us to be who we are today.

Tarot readings are something upon which we gaze that reflect back to us what needs to be learned. As Anais Nin said long ago "We don't see things as they are, we see things as we are." Therefore, what we unconsciously project onto the cards is a powerful reflection of our own energetic state. You can use these tools as a part of your spiritual practice to seize the potential of not only shaping your world but to become the creator of your own reality by harnessing the synergy of intention and spiritual awareness. We are all here on this planet to master this process of co-creation.

How exciting is it to realise you are always in the drivers seat of your own reality!

{ USING YOUR CARDS }

The Lucid Dreams Tarot Deck is such a special deck, because it aims to combine all the symbolism found in the imagery from the traditional tarot, with important Keywords prompts, as well as elemental and Zodiac symbols for each card. It encourages confidence in your intuitive abilities and helps soothe any anxiety or mental interference when connecting with your cards during readings. We will talk more about this soon, don't worry!

The purpose of this Tarot Deck is to create positive experiences; to gift you with Divine guidances so that you may obtain clarity, in order to make the necessary adjustments and actions that will lead you to the most beneficial outcomes in your life.

You are now beginning a journey of discovery with your Lucid Dreams Tarot Deck, allow the path to divine unfold before you...

{ Making Your Deck Sacred}

Find a beautiful calming space for your cards to rest when they're not in use, such as, in its given box or bag, sitting amongst your other spiritual tools or the rejuvenating energy of nature, crystals or plants.

I would always recommend finding a sacred card reading cloth, not only will it protect your cards against rough surfaces when conducting card readings, but will also serve as a spiritual Ritual to assist you in creating 'Spiritual Space'.

{Blessing The Cards}

Before you dive in and start using your cards, it's important that you put your energy into them and spiritually consecrate them. Light a candle, find a quite space and let's get started!

Close your eyes, and intuitively connect to your cards while you hold them in your hands, breathing mindfully, holding them still, allow your soul to say "hello", let the energy flow from you, to your cards, and from the cards back to you. Take your time to touch, spread, move around and feel the card deck - whatever feels right for you.

You can then open your eyes, and slowly make your way through each card, taking note and connecting with the imagery. Allow yourself a moments pause with each one. Once you've met each card, take a moment to feel/think about any specific prayer or intention you would like to imbue the cards with for their lifetime. You will only need to do this once, or after a long period of time without use. Speak your message out loud, or from your heart.

Example Intention —

"I ask that these cards assist me in intuitively connecting to my higher self, the Divine and spirit guides. I ask that they be accurate, specific, and bring blessing to everyone involved. Please help me to stay centered in my higher self, so that I may hear, see, feel, and know the divine messages that you impart through me and these cards.

Please give me the confidence to understand, trust, and follow through with these messages. May every reading impart insight, wisdom and shine a light of truth, so that I may advise myself and others I read for how to best to approach situations, or areas of life. I ask that these cards assist me in developing my psychic abilities, by allowing a channel of intuitive knowledge to flow easily and freely through me. In love & light, it is so!"

Are you excited yet?
Because I'm excited for you!

{Asking Questions}

Unlocking the answers you seek, is deeply connected to the quality of the questions you ask. The nature of the mind is to seek solutions, even when it's focused on the problem. By rooting around for a thoughtful inquiry to the problem, you may discover intuitive solutions even before consulting your cards. You will learn to use wordplay, introspection, and creativity to craft an inquiry that your Tarot Cards can clearly address.

Below are a few examples to help you understand phrasing. Notice how the 'good' questions offer an opening for narration and dialogue? Frame your question in such a way that it allows the cards to offer potential solutions, growth and understanding. This will provide a richer, more constructive experience. Also notice the tone of the 'good' questions, as they are always asked in a positive light; negative tones tend to result in a weaker reflection within the cards.

Good Examples —

"What is it about _____ that is for my highest good?"

"What lessons can I learn from _____?"

"Can you reveal which career option is ideal for my greatest growth and success?"

"May I please have clarification as to my partners feelings about our relationship?"

"Please provide me with clarity as to which direction is beneficial for my highest good and life path potential?"

"In what ways will I be able to overcome _____ to step into my greatest self?"

"What can I do to create the love life I desire?"

"What's been blocking me in finding a new job, and how can I release these blockages?"

"How can I live in alignment with my Soul's purpose?"

Poor Examples —

"Which job will get me the most money?"

"Is my partner cheating on me?"

"Will I ever find love?"

"Will I find a new job?

"Why hasn't _____ happened already?"

Alternatively, you can always ask the cards what they want to express at this time. Such as 'What do I really need to know right now?

Utilising 'Follow Up' Questions

A single major question (for a single card reading), can then be broken down into smaller follow up questions, that will serve to explore different elements of the first question. In this way you are creating your own spread and intuitive reading as you go along.

Example

"How can I live in alignment with my Soul's purpose?"

This can be broken down into specified follow up questions such as:

I - "What is my souls purpose?"

II - "What inner work do I need to be doing in order to be in alignment with my Soul's purpose?"

III - "How can I discover my Soul's purpose?"

IV - "What resources are available to me that will help me connect to . my Soul's purpose?"

... and so on.

{Shuffling the Deck}

I believe shuffling the deck is a deeply personal preference. Do whatever you feel called to!

I personally shuffle my cards allowing the card/s to 'jump' out while shuffling, or until I feel called to stop in which case I pull the immediate card/s from the top of the deck. And sometimes the bottom! Whatever flows! There may even be a card sticking out a little awkwardly after the shuffle that is calling out to you 'Hello! Pick me!"

Others like to fan their cards out and run their hands over them. Some like to cut their deck into three piles, then reutrn them to one pile and select the top card. You can even just split the deck and use that card too. There are unlimited possibilities. The key is that you follow your intuitions guidance.

Now, which ever way you choose to shuffle I would recommend connecting to your heart space, and notice any intuitive thoughts, visions, feelings, words you may be receiving while shuffling. Remember these impressions may be subtle, so pay attention to them, they will help guide you to further understand the cards you draw.

{Making a Spread}

If you are creating a spread for the reading, lay the cards out in relation to the question being asked; take a moment to choose the most appropriate spread.

I personally love to just 'flow' when I do my card readings. I will usually ask a few questions to have a basic structure to my reading, then flow as I go along by asking follow up questions or asking for 'clarifying cards'.

There will be a section of this guidebook that will give you a variety of spreads for you to utilise for your readings. When you begin using Tarot, simplicity is key. Don't overwhelm yourself, allow time for your knowledge to deepen before exploring large card spreads.

{ THE WISDOM OF THE TAROT }

The Lucid Dreams Beginners Tarot is always ready to assist you with its visually intuitive language and timeless wisdom. Today, there are a million and one resources available that explore the Tarot in such complexities and detail! But here, we're just going to softly touch on the basics and focus on the overall energetic structure -- so you can dip your toes in and get started using these beautiful divination tools.

{The Tarot}

The 78 cards in a Tarot deck are created from a Major and Minor Arcarna. There are four suits that form the Minor Arcarna (Cups, Wands, Swords and Pentacles), and 22 individual cards that form the Major Arcarna.

The Tarot follows 'The Fool' (Card 0/the first card in the deck) as he journeys through the different stages and experiences in life. The Fool's Journey is a metaphor of our own individual life paths and is able to reflect back to us our physical, spiritual and emotional vibrational experiences, both past, present and future.

Each Major Arcana card stands for a stage on that journey - an experience that a person must incorporate to realize his wholeness (is represented by the The World card, the last card of the Major Arcarna). They hold great energetic messages, spiritual power and provide deeper insights into our major life lessons, karma and spiritual awakening. Special attention should be paid when a Major Arcarna card shows up.

Cards of the Minor Arcarna are also important, however they are more likely to guide you through the everyday events of life. The nitty-gritty 3rd Dimensional 'stuff'.

PS. This will all make more sense as we go along!

{THE MAJOR ARCARNA}

We're going to take a little journey through the Major Arcarna together -- in regards to The Fool's Journey! I would recommend finding and pulling these cards out as we go along, this way you can connect with each card and gain a little overview of what's to come!

• The first card is THE FOOL, represented by the number 0. He is the birth of a soul into the body ready to begin his Earthly journey. He is unaware of his connection to the Divine and Unity Consciousness of all things. He has no fear, and is ready to explore the world with an innate sense of innocence, hope and carelessness - unaware and lack of care for what lay ahead.

• Next, we have THE MAGICIAN represented by the number 1. It is the first awareness of ones own power and his ability to create and manifest. He has the understanding and mastery of the 4 elements water, air, fire, earth - represented by the four suits of the Minor Arcarna, that are present on the table in front of him.

• We then come across THE HIGH PRIESTESS who reminds us that there is mystical forces beyond our third-dimensional reality. Ruled by the moon and intuition, she has no need for action, thoughts or words. She is the mysterious unconscious.

• We come across the beautiful EMPRESS as number 3. She represents the Queen of all Minor Arcarna Queens, the Fool's Mother and Mother Earth. The Empress is the ultimate balanced Divine Feminine Energy, she's nourishing and life-giving. She gives birth to the natural world that surrounds us, helping us connect to nature and sensation.

• THE EMPEROR is number 4 and represents the Divine Masculine energy and the father. He is the representative of structure and authority. He commands the four corners of the world his beautiful wife (The Empress) has brought into being. The Fool also encounters rules. These restrictions can be frustrating, but, through the patient direction of the Father, the Fool begins to understand their purpose

• When we meet THE HEIROPHANT we meet a man who is beyond the need to control or dictate the external world and the four elements. He is number 5, which taps into the 5th element of 'Spirit' in regards to our 3D world - religion and beliefs. The Fool learns the organized belief systems that begin to surround and inform the growing child.

• THE LOVERS as card number 6, it challenges The Fool to balance union energies between himself and another. He wants to reach out and become half of a loving partnership that he so desperately yearns for. It is also representative of the eternal dilemma of making choices based on our free will.

• THE CHARIOT as card 7 represents the control and mastery in The Fools journey. Through will power and discipline he has learnt inner control and confidence in his abilities in his environment. At this stage in the journey he is feeling in command and has asserted his success, and will continue to push forwards with force.

• STRENGTH comes in as The Fools next lesson - just when he thought he had everything under control - he is met with new challenges that may cause disillusionment and test his spirit. He learns here to develop softer qual-of inner strength, patience, tolerance and loving assertion.

• We meet THE HERMIT walking along the path of knowledge. It's at this point The Fool begins seeking a deeper truth, looking inward trying to understand himself. He craves time for solitude, contemplation and wisdom from spiritual teachers.

• THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE represents the intricate wonders of patters and cycles held within the fabric of our existence and the grand bigger picture of the Universe. The Fools meets fate at card 10, a chance encounter or seemingly miraculous occurrence that begins to turn the wheel again and begin the process of change.

• JUSTICE is met at card 11, where The Fool is asked to step back and look at the cause and effect of his actions have brought him, up until this point. He learns to balance and clear his slate when the hands of Justice are served.

• THE HANGED MAN is total surrender and letting go. At this point The Fool feels like he has sacrificed everything and feels defeated unsure of what to do other than pause. During this time of R&R, his soul is able to speak up. The Fool finds his Inner World and connects with a deep truth that enables him to let go of control, trust and shift his perspectives in alignment with serenity and peace.

• The Fool is met with DEATH, and now begins to eliminate the old and welcome in anew. This transformation is a process of death and rebirth. It's not always easy, and often painful (especially for the ego), but The Fool realises that is a blossoming of an entirely new and more fulfilling way of life.

• The journey has been a wild ride insofar, but soon realises the balance and stability brought to him by TEMPERANCE. He learns to heal every level of his being, including his physical, emotional, mental and spiritual bodies. He is cleansed and rejuvenated by the angelic waters. Just look how far he's come since the powerful aggressive Chariot!

• Eventually (yes, it was bound to happen) The Fool encounters THE DEVIL at card 15. It has the ability to twist the words of all of the lessons we have learned and trick us into believing that they are as much lies as he is telling. But he can only harm us if we are blind to the fact we ourselves are the ones with the power. The Devil requires mastery of self-awareness and release of unconscious toxic patterns that keep us chained to our shadow side within us all.

• The Fool may often only find release from The Devil when he is met with a TOWER moment. It represents destruction of the very foundation that life, belief systems, relationships etc have been built upon. These moments of sudden change and upheaval may seem chaotic but are divinely guided to assist in a major life revelation and inner realisation. Yes, sometimes the Divine has to step in to assist you! The painful experience from the severe shakeup are all entirely worthwhile, even if The Fool doesn't see this at the time.

• THE STAR is ultimate hope, tranquility, inspiration and healing. The naked woman is vulnerable, exposed and radiating as a beacon of trust. The Fool's faith in himself and the Divine are restored here. His heart opens and his love freely pours out.

• THE MOON enters the skies to shake things up again for The Fools. It represents falling into illusions, hidden unconscious things from lack of mental clarity or awareness. Here we see deep seated fears arise alongside anxiety coming the surface. The Fool intuitively knows there is more going on here than meets the eye.

• THE SUN radiates and shines light onto all aspects of that which has been hidden. It enlightens all that it touches. The Fool feels the warmth of joy, ultimate happiness and understanding from this new expansive awareness. He now enjoys vibrant energies and enthusiasm. This is the happiest card in the entire deck.

• The Fool finally is called by JUDGEMENT, at card 20. His ego has shed, and feels refreshed and cleansed. He forgives himself and others as he answers the final call of judgement. He is being called to rise up, to answer his higher calling now to fulfill his life purpose.

• The WORLD is the final card in the Major Arcarna! The Fool 're-enters' the world, but this time with a more complete understanding. He has integrated all the disparate parts of himself and has achieved 'wholeness'. He understands Unity Consciousness and his place in the world as a part of a larger 'whole'. He has leveled up, and ready for a new journey after closing out this journey's cycle and learnt all the lessons presented to him.

{THE MINOR ARCARNA}

The Minor Arcarna is 56 cards made up from 4 suits, and similarly, a story line can be followed through each of the suits. typically symbolize with everyday happenings in one's life. If you are feeling called to, you can organise your deck into suits, and review them chronologically, starting with the Aces -- each suit has it's own unique storyline that tells a tale from start to finish!

• {CUPS} •

The Suit of Cups represents emotions, feelings, intuition and creativity. It appears in readings as a response to relationships, emotional connection with others and self. The cups are associated with the element of water — it's a feminine energy that symbolises fluidity, intuition, healing, feelings and emotions, and relationships.

• Strengths : At its best, it reflects an open, intuitive gentle emotional maturity, flow, healing, cleansing, creativity, and inner knowing.

• Weaknesses: At its worst, it can be a destructive tidal wave that wreaks total havoc from being unable to master or control ones emotions. It can be a reflection of being totally absorbed in emotions, fantasies and an unhealthy balance with logic.

• {WANDS} •

The Suit of Wands represents your energy, motivation and passions. It appears in readings as a response to spirituality, purpose and new ideas. The wands are associated with the element of Fire - it's a masculine energy that symbolises enthusiasm, passion and creativity, embodying willpower, zest for life.

• Strengths : At its best, it reflects inspirations, courage, drive, abilities to change our external world, action-orientated, adventurous and open.

• Weaknesses: At its worst, it refers to lack of direction, recklessness, volatility, anger, hot-headedness and fiery destruction.

• {SWORDS} •

The Suit of Swords represents your thoughts, words actions. It appears in readings as a response to the communication of ideas, inner thoughts and assertion of ideas. The swords are associated with the element of Air - it's a masculine energy that symbolises knowledge, action and power, it can lead by force and power, even though it remains unseen.

• Strengths : At its best, it shows strength in the realm of thought, communication and intelligence.

• Weaknesses: At its worst, it can be problematic, manifesting as conflict, passive-aggression, bully, intimidation and cold-heartedness.

• {PENTACLES} •

The Suit of Pentacles represents work, career, material possessions and finances. It appears in readings as a response to career, wealth and world pursuits. The pentacles are associated with the element of Earth — it's a feminine energy that symbolises physically tangibility, grounding, stability, support and fertility.

• Strengths : At its best, it shows up as resilience, abundance, hard-working, solid foundations, reliability, responsible and ambitious.

• Weaknesses: At its worst, it shows up as greed, jealousy, laziness, materialism, carelessness and stubbornness.

{COURT CARDS}

Another major component to explore is the court cards within each of the suits. We have Aces, followed by cards numbered 2 through to 10, and finally we welcome in the Court Cards! Some say that the Court Cards are the hardest to grasp in tarot, however, as stated earlier in this guide my aim is to guide you through the tarot as though I was sharing my current wisdom with my younger self. I know how I would have loved to have learnt this - and I know it can throw a lot of reader in the loops - so here is a beautiful, straight forward approach I would love to share with you!

PS - If you feel like pulling out all the court cards now to have a look at them as we explore them, please do so!

Court Cards are said to represent people, personalities and specific approaches to life. Just like human beings, each Court Card has their own unique quirks and characteristics. So when a court card appears take a moment to reflect on who, or what aspect of your personality (or that of another) is currently effecting your situation.

Once we set a structure and mental framework for our minds to work with, we can then allow our intuition to freely roam from the starting gates. The framework is on the premise that each court card belongs to a 'Suit' (cups, pentacles, wands and swords) and then is in order of 'Rank'. So you really just need to have a basic understanding of each suit and ranks characteristics, then to interpret any court card you can combine your understanding of the framework with your intuition.

Four Ranks and Four Suits is a total of 16 combinations - trust me though, it's easier than it sounds! You'll get it!

{The Four Suits}

- We just explored, so let's explore the ranks...

{The Four Ranks in The Court Cards}

One of the biggest keys to the court cards is their individual relationship and connection to their suit. They are best interpreted within their own self-reflexive narration to their 'element' rather than to the outside world. Remember, it's a reflection of their mastery of their suit!

• PAGES: The youngest of the court cards. A playful, youthful energy, with innocence and naivety with the suits energy. They may still have a lot to learn about their suit, but they observe it with fresh new eyes and a sense of wonderment.

• KNIGHTS: The teenager of the court cards. They are learning to utilise their element and integrate it within their life, however they are quite erratic or unstable with it. One minute they think they have it all figured out, they next they are learning from scratch again. They are super proactive about it though!

• QUEENS: A beautiful mature energy who embodies the traits of her element and radiates that energy from the inside out. She a the living breathing personification. She leads by example by setting her intentions and beliefs and following through in alignment with her inner world. This is the feminine energy or Yin.

• KINGS: The mature energy who projects the energy of his suit outwardly in the world. He leads by action and allows others to follow. This is the masculine energy or Yang.

Okay, heres a few quick tips too --

• Do not let age and gender dilute your relationship with the court cards. It does not have to be taken literally, but rather in the sense of energetic value and vibrational embodiment.

• A great tip is to loosely relate each card to someone you know who reflects the qualities of each court card. This way when the card shows up you can ask yourself, 'What would X do in this situation?' 'How would X react or interpret this challenge?'

{ THE ELEMENTS IN TAROT}

The four elements (Fire, Water, Air and Earth) are reflected in the four suits in the Tarot (Wands, Cups, Swords and Pentacles, respectively), and are ALSO embodied by the Zodiac Signs. Can you see how everything is slowly fitting into place? Are you noticing that there are larger systems creating order and structure of these energies?

{About the Elements} Our lives seemingly drift in an out of these four elements. We are experiencing them during the 'everyday' of our lives. From the way our communications are drawn from AIR; emotions are stirred up and carried by the currents of WATER, our actions driven by the impulses of FIRE and the way in which we attempt to deal with EARTH-ly matters in the material world. Our entire human existence is sensed through the experiential energetic dance of the elements within us.

PS Once we cover the Tarot Suits, Elements, Zodiac and Numerology this will all fall into place, I promise!

TABLE OF ELEMENTS

FIRE	Aries	Leo	Sagittarius
EARTH	Taurus	Virgo	Capricorn
AIR	Gemini	Libra	Aquarius
WATER	Cancer	Scorpio	Pisces

△ { FIRE } Fire signs Aries, Leo, Sagittarius give fire, action, light and radiance. They are therefore related to the qualities of enthusiasm, zeal, passion, love, courage, individuality and spirituality. It's worth noting that this triplicity begins with the cardinal sign Aries, which is the first sign of the entire Zodiac, the East, sunrise and the beginning of self. Hence the ruling energetic undertone of these fire signs itself is 'self'.

This fiery realm deals with all aspects of creating and interacting with others around us. The element is sexual by nature and is a natural drive that pulls us towards our individual sources of passion and inspiration. Fire's challenge centers on our use of will and our expression of instinctual drives in all their creative and destructive phases. It's an element that is inspirited to consume all in its path, it burns forcefully, deliberately & vibrantly — will eventu-

-lly burn out when the time comes to recreate anew.

{ EARTH } For mankind, the Earth beneath our feet is the acme of grounding and solidity in both a literal and figurative sense. The Earth signs Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn produce a being who believes in solidity, in palpable reality and in aims which are practically attainable.

This is the realm that sets us up in the physical realm. It concentrates on our psychical manifestations and worldly progress. These Earth signs concern themselves with social survival and the provisions in which our psychical Earth-based needs are met. This element roots itself in responsibility and our roles in the communities and world we live in. This is where we manifest our existence.

{ AIR } Air symbolises man's thoughts and mental powers. It is the positive power which raised him above the animal and therefore worth noting that not one of the Air signs has an animal symbol. The air is the element most 'apart of the Earth' and thus people under this influence have the least inclination to Earthly things. Usually the air signs show an extraordinary disdain of Earthly things. Usually the air signs show an extraordinary disdain of Earthly logic and this is in some degree proved by Gemini and Libra, but chiefly by Aquarius.

Elemental air vibrates in our minds and thoughts. The way in which we think and attempt to communicate our inner wisdoms are it's true mysteries. The way to master this element is through our breath; we're able to use our breath as a means of ordering our thoughts, to discipline and find clarity in the activity of the mind. Our ability to speak and communicate effectively with ourselves and others is channeled through this element. Our individual perspectives on life and philosophy are formulated here as well. Overall, how we utilise our mental powers can be like a gentle zephyr, or a howling gail.

{ WATER } The element of water is the negative female principle and symbolises emotions, feeling and intuition. In all three signs forming within this triangle, the energy of sentiment is prominent. Water signs are particularly sensitive to the sea of emotions in which they live and instinctively connect with other along the vibrations of feeling.

This realm mainly centers on our feelings, intuition and imagination. Usually these energies are nebulous and difficult to hold in focus. Our emotions flow like the ebbs and flows of water, that are constantly changing. Our individual truths find their form in our visions and feelings before they morph into something new. In order to know this element, we must allow emotions to freely flow to the surface and trust the intuitive visionary qualities of our imaginations and dreams.

{ THE ZODIAC IN TAROT}

In card readings, the twelve Zodiac energies can be interpreted in a few of different ways; they can be taken quite literally in terms of them symbolising people in your life, or as vibrational representations of energy signatures. The zodiac card suit encompasses multiple aspects of any given situation, person, self-reflection, event, emotion and energetic vibration that is conditioning the space of a specific card position, or encompassing an entire inquiry.

It is imperative that you stay open to the unique cosmic fingerprint that each zodiac sign is offering. By intuiting how each of their vibrational personalities may be offering insights, clarity and higher wisdom for you will enrich your readings and understanding of the cards.

- { ARIES } ♈

"Upbeat and ready for anything. Aries is the first sign of the zodiac — the pioneer and the initiator! Ruled by Fire, the Ram lives in the moment and moves fast and furiously. An action-orientated spirit with natural-born leadership, and impossible to ignore!"

{ THE RULING PLANETS IN TAROT}

When you choose to learn and incorporate the planetary energies into your understanding it becomes such valuable tool in helping detect patterns, connections and correspondences within your readings. (Please note though -- if this is too overwhelming right now, you can leave this section and come back another time when you are more confident with the basics! Just learn and grow at your own pace!)

Example: if a lot of the cards in the spread are related to Mars, there is a good chance that a major conflict is in the making... or if many of the cards correspond to Jupiter, things are soon going to open up and you will have a chance to improve their station in life.

- { THE SUN }

— Planetary body of expression, energy, and ego

The Sun - also known as a star or luminary — represents the luminous self, personality, ego, identity, one's individual spirit, expression and Masculine energy.

The Sun's gifts us with an abundance of gifts and lessons that nourish us and allow us to learn and expand. He brings generous warmth, radiance, creativity, love that opens our hearts and enlivens our spirits.

- { THE MOON }

— Planetary body of emotions, family and intuition

She is the ruler of our inner world: our emotions, reactions and life patterns. The Moon teaches us to work with the opposing forces of constancy and change; integrating them both within our lives can help us create fluid consistency, and a sense of ease. Learning to accept the hindrances that we encounter along our life's river also teaches us emotional flexibility. It illuminates us with perspective so we can embrace being in a natural state of perpetual motion, rather than getting stuck, caught up and invested in the negative experience.

• { JUPITER }

— Planet of optimism, expansion and bounty

Jupiter is the planet that expands our awareness, guides the way in which we open our minds, grow our lives, and develop higher perspectives in this lifetime. He is the guardian of our abstract minds, human spirit, philosophies and bestows upon us a yearning for greater attainment of intellectual and spiritual ideas. He effortless assist us in weaving together our sense of Universal meaning and truth. Jupiter is a benevolent planet that drives us — and the collective consciousness — to expand and flourish in positive ways.

• { URANUS }

— Planet of rebellion and upheaval

Uranus is the planet of change, awakening, and the unexpected. It's the energy force that pushes us into reactive action, through sudden changes in our environments or by revealing radical truths that once lay dormant, or unbeknown within. Uranus leads us beyond the confines of our known environments, and violently breaks down the belief constructs we hold about our personal and Universal existences.

• { MERCURY }

— Planet of thought, focus and communication

Mercury's domain is in communication, intellect, awareness, logic, reasoning, our manner of thinking, focus levels and the ways in which we create and express our thoughts. This small, speedy planet is what that drives us from one thing to the next on both a physical and psychological level.

• { VENUS }

— Planet of love, beauty and money

Venus is the planet of love, relationships, romance, harmony, emotional attachments, beauty and money. Its vibrations guide the way in which we approach, think and feel about love, the way we experience pleasure, how we act on our desires and needs of the heart, as well as the role money and finances plays in our lives. Venus is concerned with spreading happiness and compassion, socialising and our reliability to others; it teaches us how to love and appreciate others.

• { NEPTUNE }

— Planet of subconscious, dreams and fantasies

Neptune brings us the beautiful gift of spiritual perspective, that beacons us to step back from the drama of our lives in order to embrace the wonderments that we too often shut out. Neptune's dreamy nature helps us drift off into a spiritual space that reminds us that we belong to humanity, and amongst the stars of the cosmos; that we are a unique golden thread of light interwoven in the indivisible fabric of Universal existence, and we are never as separated as we ever feel or think.

• { SATURN }

— Karmic planet of limits and boundaries

Saturn serves as a model of discipline, integrity and consistency. It helps us to find balance between it's overactive (stiff and fearful) and under-active (flaky, unreliable and defenseless) states of being; finding the golden point between frozen rigidity and fluid formlessness. We need to learn to be flexible in an orderly fashion.

• { MARS } ♂

— The planet of passion

Mars, the warrior planet of action, passion, energy, drive and fearlessness. It's the celestial body known as the 'Red Planet' that guides what we do and how we do it. It's a bold, confident, active energy that command us to stand up, be noticed, and to get things d-o-n-e. (It also governs our sexual energies.) Mars is an initiator and an instigator, that ultimately speaks to the ambitious power and passionate expression of the individual.

• { PLUTO } ♇

— The planet of secrets, death and rebirth

Pluto forces us to address the shadows of our mind, particularly the aspects we unconsciously hide from ourselves. When we avoid dealing with or fail to recognise these darker sides, we end up self-sabotaging our access to the full power and potentiality that lay within us. When we face these fears, doubts, shameful acts, and shortcomings without retribution or condemnation, we free ourselves from their bondage. In turn, we end up expanding and enriching our conscious awarenesses to even greater heights than ever before.

• { EARTH } ⊕

— The planet of oneness. Gaia

Earth teaches us about grounding, practicalities, manifestation, fertility, life mission and connection back to oneself. The symbolic relationship between the Sun and Earth is what helps bring us these important lessons. Earth represents a process of reorientation and shifting of perspectives in order to balance the dualities ever-present on this planet. The Earth is our current standing point of perspective, while the Sun represents what we came here to learn. It's this Earth-centric viewpoint in which we are able to gain greater understanding and wisdom of our Universal existence. Our mission here on Earth is far greater than conceivable by the human mind.

{ NUMEROLOGY IN TAROT}

Numerology is a whole field of spiritual and divinatory study, that goes well beyond the realms of tarot. However, tarot Numerology differs somewhat from that of traditional Numerology in a few ways. In tarot, the symbolic meaning of the numbers are kept as a means of referencing and organising the meaning of the cards. Understanding these symbolic numerical associations is crucial when working with any traditional tarot and extremely valuable when you are just beginning to learn tarot all together.

Numerology within the cards provides you with the opportunity to skilfully analyse the strengths and weaknesses in human nature. It can help you learn more about life events, karmic principles, conscious and subconscious, connect you with Higher Spiritual Wisdom and assist you in seizing opportunities (for yourself or clients) that may have previously been missed by your awareness. By incorporating Numerology — or at lease being aware of it — during your readings, you'll be unveiling a subtext that will enrich your spiritual messages and in turn cultivate a deeper sense of understanding from within.

-- Important Tips --

Keep an eye our for numerological themes, to draw the most enriched meanings from your card readings! Numerology can be used to interpret a single card or an entire reading. For example, the one's are about new beginnings, creation and determination, whereas the ten's are about endings and conclusions. For larger card spreads Numerology can be used to detect certain themes by interpreting the quantity and quality of numbers (or number sequences) that appear in the reading.

For example, the presence of three four's in a reading would indicate fruition, or the manifestation of an idea along with a strong, fertile foundation where things can grow. A series of ascending numbers, such as 4 -5 -6 appearing together strongly indicates ascension and forward progress and vice versa....

- Its all good vibes -

If this is all sounding a little overwhelming right now don't worry!

Just remember that everything is here to assist, help and guide you towards the answers you seek. No one is testing you on your ability to remember these things.

Take it slow and build your confidence over time with small bite-sized doses...

{ 0 } Zero means nothing and so it often symbolises the potential we have to form something new out of what doesn't exist. In some cases, zero is seen as representative of the beginning, much like The Fool appears at the beginning of the Tarot. We lay witness to the new and exciting life journeys they are about to embark on.

{ I }The number one carries an energy of that which denotes that which is soon to commence and take form. It's filled with inspiration, opportunities, new beginnings, potentiality and new endeavors. It signifies Universal Source, because any number that's multiplied by one will always equals itself. In the traditional Tarot deck, one is represented by The Magician, who takes control of his own environment and gains personal power by manipulating that which is around him.

{ II } Number two represents balance, partnership, sharing, duality, decisions and crossroads, diplomacy and agreement. Many twos in a reading can indicate that there is partial success in the present, but more will be revealed over time. It can also indicate a reconciliation or reunion. It's ultimately related to the polarity and duality that exists throughout the Universal existence; yin and yang, light and dark, masculine God and feminine divine.

{ III } Number three is a vibrational representation of growth, the initial achievement of goals, creative expression and communication. It's the outcome of numbers one and two before it and goes through four to finally bring about the desired goal and the envisioned dream. Many three's in a reading can indicate group scenarios, creative energies and an abundance of communication with future successes.

{ IV } The number four represents practicality, structure, foundation, organisation, planning, formation, stability and masculine energies. It manifests as a well-built, thoroughly planned out foundation of ideas and proper application. It's a result of the imaginative, creative and desirous energies of one, two and three. If multiple fours appear in your reading, it's an indication of fruition and the manifestation of ideas that have the perfect foundations in which to grow.

{ V } Fives energy is all about instability, change, opporunities for growth through hardship, conflict, recreation and time for change. Many fives n one reading strongly suggests challenge, chaos and fluctuation. They can also indicate an imbalance between material prosperity and spiritual poverty.

{ VI } Sixes bring us a calming energy after the chaos of five. It vibrates balance, harmony, love, comfort, new adjustments, problem-solving and rewarded outcomes. Six has grounding abilities, that pull us back to 'home'. There is a lot of empathy and love vibrating in abundance at this level. Many six's in a reading will indicate the strength you have to transcend difficulties.

{ VII } Seven is connected to introspect, reflection, intelligence, spiritual knowledge, wisdom, perfect order, meditation, and discovery. It's the Truth Seeker representing our journey through experiences where understanding develops, and faith in the unknown is attained.

Seven is all about the feminine energies that bring us the inner workings of intuition, though forms and consciousness. Many sevens in a reading indicate a time of solitude, soulful rest, and a period of introspection.

{ VIII } Number eight is representative power and strength, and the synergy of the material and spiritual worlds. It vibrates spiritual fortitude, success, accomplishment, attainment, capabilities, re-evaluations and positive movements towards the right direction.

It's a powerful energy that springs forth from within and enables you to accomplish what you've set out to do. Many eights in a reading indicate positive change of mind.

{ IX } Nine is all about wrapping things up, conclusions, completion, fulfillment, and becoming a sage of wisdom and spiritual inspirations for others. Many nines in a reading will indicate that the situation or journey at hand is nearing completion, and the next phase await. They ask you to start preparing yourself to open the new door ahead...

{ X } Because ten is neither the end nor the beginning, but a transition between an ending and a beginning to a higher order of things. It is the start of a whole new order of numbers as well as being the culmination of the numbers that come before it.

{ XI } 11 -- Eleven is a Master Number and as the name implies, represents energies or vibrations that are more highly evolved than ordinary numbers. There is a high level of intuition, creativity and illumination. The appearance of Master Number eleven is a kind of call to take the path of deeper spiritual fulfillment. It indicates an opportunity to fulfill ourselves in new and deeper ways.

{ XXII } 22 -- Known as 'The Master Teacher', number twenty-two is also a Master Number and cannot be compounded into a single digit. It exists in an extraordinarily high vibrational state, two-fold to that of eleven. Its energy holds incredible powers of manifestation, creativity, and connection to Divine.

{ INTERPRETING YOUR CARDS }

The part I'm sure you've been eager to get to - Reading the cards! Take your time to really explore this section...

Intuition is your most important tool for interpreting the story that cards are telling you. There is a superior guidance system that dwells within you. Tapping into your intuitive guidance system opens up a whole new dimension of understanding and perception.

To start, observe the cards that lay before you — notice if there are any major elements, symbols, numbers, words or feelings. Focus on reading your cards as a whole story rather than getting too caught up in just one card. Let the cards combine with your intuitive heart, so that it may draw your attention where it needs to be.

Lets explore your cards

{Card Layouts and Structure}

Your cards have been designed to help you as much as possible during this rapid learning curve. The unique words/ symbols designed into this deck are here as gentle little nudges to guide you in the right direction and to build trust in your intuition. The keywords and symbols are not intended to be read verbatim - I would highly encourage you to steer clear of pulling a card and simply reading the keywords.

Ideally, you would pull a card, and connect with the imagery first. Tap into the colours, movement, scenario, and mood of the card. Allow IT to tell YOU the story. However, ofcourse there may be a specific word that jumps out to you on the card, which will assist you in interpreting your own unique meaning each time. Card meanings are not set in stone, and your intuition will always triumphs!

The Zodiac signs, elemental symbols and ruling planets are there to assist you with additional information if you get stuck, or if you are drawn to one of thees symbols for deeper meaning, then you intuition is calling you to explore and incorporate this into meaning,

{Simple Tips}

Here is a section of simple tips you can continually come back to and revisit should you ever need a little reminder! I would recommend bookmarking this page to help prompt you during your readings while you are still getting use to the cards and performing readings.

-- Take a deep breath, relax and let it flow! --

• Take notice of what suit the card/s are in. Are they cups, swords, wands or pentacles? Is there one more dominant than the rest? Is there an entire suit missing from the reading? What does this tell you?

• Is there multiple Major Arcarna cards present? Or is it mostly Minor Arcarna?

• How many court cards are there? How many people are involved?

• Take note of the reversals and their relationship to the other cards around them in the spread.

• Are there are series of number present? Are they all the same (emphasis), ascending (progression) or descending (backwards undoing)?

• Have any of these cards appeared multiple times in my past readings? Why is this card/s continually showing up?

• If the court cards could speak to one another in this spread, what would they say? How would they behave and react to one another or the energies around them?

• Are there multiple Aces in the spread?

• Is there one particular card that is calling out to you? What about it are you being drawn to? Is it something about the imagery? What emotions does this raise? What intuitive thoughts are coming through?

• What cards come before and after this in the Tarot Deck?

• How does it make me feel?

• What am I drawn to on this card?

- "What do I know about this suit?"

- "Is the spread dominated by a certain zodiac sign, what does this tell me about myself and my inner world?"

Practice practice practice --

Have a go yourself! Test out the idea of tapping into the imagery, and the letting the story unfold in your minds eye. Pull a few cards - there's no need to ask any questions or create a spread at this point - just practice connecting with one card at a time asking "What is this cards energy? What is it communicating?" Continue until you have 2 or 3 interpreted cards in front of you. Then ask, "what story do they now tell that they are together?"

Tip: When you think you're done, continue you ask "What Else?... What else?... What else?..." You will be so suprised what comes up!

-- You've got this!

{A Quick Note About Reversals}

Should you have a reversed card appear in your reading, understand that this individual card took a little more energy to turn itself around. It's asking for slightly more attention. It's important to note that reversed cards are not to be interpreted as dark, or negative, but rather energy that is requiring your conscious presence.

{How to Interpret Them}

As with everything in Tarot, how you choose to interpret and read your cards is entirely up to you. Here are THREE different ways you can read reversals and incorporate them into your meanings. -- Please note, these techniques are entirely interchangeable, some days I will read my reversals as my inner world reflection (I), other days it's an energy block (II), just follow your intuition.

{I} You can interpret upright cards as your External World, and use the same upright meanings for you reversals, but as a reflection of your Inner World! Ofcourse, if you were to do this, you can ignore the reverse keywords on your cards and use the prompts for your upright position.

Example -- Using this technique the Ace of Cups can be interpreted upright as new emotions, love etc. as a part of your External World. In reverse, you can ignore the key-words on the card and interpret it as a reflection of your Inner World by understanding it as self-love, self-nourish-ment, new emotional awakenings within you.

{II} With technique number II, you can interpret reversals as indications that the qualities and energies described by the cards may be blocked, hidden or internalised.
Example -- Using this technique the Ace of Cups can be interpreted upright as new emotions and love still, but in reverse it would indicate the lack of love, an inability to love, feelings of emptiness and repressed emotions.

Does this makes sense? Pull out the Ace Of Cups card and re-read this section again with the card next to you this time - see if you can pick up on it.

--

{III} Technique three is simple, and most beginners choose to opt for this for simplicity and ease. You can simply turn your cards upright and not read reversals at all! Yes, it's entirely possible, and there are a lot of Tarot Experienced Readers out there who choose to ignore them.

(I personally prefer to incorporate reversals as I feel there is a deeper understanding that can be accessed by incorporating them.)

Remember - The choice is yours with how you choose to read the reversed cards! There is no right or wrong. Go with what flows, trust that your intuition will guide you!

{ CARD SPREADS }

When you begin your journey with Tarot start with small, quick readings with only a few cards. You can ask simple questions and receive simple answers that are easier to interpret.

-- Tip --

Revisit 'Asking A Question' section before progressing to refresh your mind about setting intention for your spread.

The large majority of the answers you seek will make it seem like the cards have been divinely guided to answer your question. Other times there may moments where the answer does not appear to be specifically answering your question -- these are the moments that will really ask you to tap into and develop your intuition, your ability to read the cards and your ability to make decisions. Clear your mind, meditate and return to the spread if you get stuck.

{One-Card Technique}

Every card embodies a specific energy, concept and psychology, and any one card has the ability to provide you with answers and the clarity you seek. Use this method for daily guidance, especially when time is precious, or you need a quick energy update.

I would recommend using the One-Card-Technique until you become familiar with each card.

Tips: When using a one-card reading, you may find that one card jumps out of the deck while shuffling - this card is your answer! If two fly out, then they both were wanting to come out together, so read them both!

{Three-Card Technique}

When you are comfortable with the one-card technique you are then ready to learn a few three-card spreads. These spreads have the ability to give you a broader perspective of the situation, and will give you the crystal clear insight you need. Seriously, you can get super deep with just three cards!

First choose a spread you would like to perform (there is a list to choose from on the next page), then shuffle your deck as you ask your overall question, laying out each three cards one by one when you are ready.

A TIP ABOUT REVERSALS

Dont like the outcome you see? Thats OK! The future isnt set in stone, you have the power to shift your current energetic vibration to align to the outcome your desire. You are in the drivers seat of your own reality!

PS • an important note

The way this guidebook has been created is highly intentional...

I wanted to create a guidebook with 'space for interpretation' rather than having a book with multiple pages of information about each card (that you would just probably read word for word to understand your cards)...

INSTEAD each card is given an overall 'energetic' reference to guide your own intuition. This gives you space to develop your unique meaning and interpretations...

{TAROT CARD MEANINGS}

This section is catagorised into the Major Arcarna, and Minor Arcarna in chronological order. The Minor Arcarna is then broken down into each suit in chronological order.

{ Major Arcarna }

22 cards

My Notes

{ 0. THE FOOL }

Wide-eyed and as innocent as a newborn child. He is taking his first steps on a very exciting journey. Carefree, unaware of dangers and ready to get going! He inspires courage, for he understands that every day is a chance to open up new areas in your life, and with that comes a mixture of anticipation, wonder, awe and curiosity.

{Zodiac}N/A {Element} Air {Planetary Ruler} Uranus [Numerology} 0

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - new relationship, fun light romance
Career -new job, new business, breath of fresh air at work
Finance - spontaneous spending, financial opportunities

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - lack of commitment, risky relationship
Career -stale and boring job, reckless actions at work
Finance - caution around financial opportunities, foolish purchases

My Notes

{ I. THE MAGICIAN }

The magician symbolises the ability to manifest and create with the elements (fire, water, earth and air) at will. The infinity sign on his head indicates the infinite possibilities of creation. Remember that you are powerful, create your inner world, and the outer will follow.

{Zodiac}N/A {Element} Air {Planetary Ruler} Mercury [Numerology} 1

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - creating opportunities for love, being proactive Career - harnessing career opportunities, determination and drive Finance - pursuing financial opportunity, making use of skills

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - romantic illusion, romantic trickery, low willpower for love. Career -wasted talent, unwillingness to take chances, workplace deception. Finance - missed financial opportunity, not using skills for financial gain.

My Notes

{ II. THE HIGH PRIESTESS }

The High Priestess symbolises the bridge and harmony between our reality and the spiritual realm. Her appearance in a reading can signify that it is time for you to listen to your intuition rather than prioritizing your intellect and conscious mind.

{Zodiac}N/A {Element} Water {Planetary Ruler} Moon {Numerology} 2

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - remain patient in love, calm exterior with inner passion, intimacy. Career - education, creative inspiration, guide, mentor, use instincts. Finance - keeping your financial situation private .

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - ignoring intuition in romance, hiding true self with lover. Career -feeling isolated, lacking project information, rejecting intuition. Finance - lack of information, not knowing all the facts.

My Notes

{ III. THE EMPRESS }

The Empress is abundance in the Natural World, she represents the Mother Earth archetype. The Empress brings abundance and blessings in the readings of those she meets. She is associated with fertility, expression, creativity and nurturing among many other aspects.

{Zodiac}N/A {Element} Earth {Planetary Ruler} Venus {Numerology} 3

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - nurturing, supportive lover, sensual committed relationship. Career - nurturing colleagues, freshening up office, creative period at work. Finance - material comfort, giving, sharing material wealth, generosity.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love -lack of self worth, jealous, clingy lover, lack of progress in love. Career -feeling insecure at work, not growing skills, stale job. Finance - feeling insecure about finances, despite being stable.

My Notes

{ IV. THE EMPEROR }

The Emperor is a stoic ruler representative of Divine Masculine energies. He has power, authority and complete order for the benefit of his people - he is King of all Kings. He is a symbol of the masculine principle - the paternal figure in life that gives structure, creates rules and systems, and imparts knowledge.

{Zodiac}Aries {Element} Fire {Planetary Ruler} N/A {Numerology} 4

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - traditional relationship, use logic in love, unexpressed emotions. Career - creating processes, structure, discipline, routine, mentor. Finance - creating processes, structure, discipline, routine, mentor.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - power struggle, competitiveness, overbearing partner. Career -low concentration or focus, bureaucracy, bad boss. Finance - not disciplined about money.

My Notes

{ V. THE HIEROPHANT }

The Hierophant is a religious figure representing social order, religion and beliefs. He is acting as the masculine counterpart of another card which is known as the High Priestess. The Hierophant card suggests that it's better for you to follow social structures which are established.

{Zodiac}Taurus {Element} Earth {Planetary Ruler} N/A {Numerology} 5

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - rejection from pressuring lover, reigniting passions. Career - refreshed from vacation or time off, burning out. Finance - not accepting support, recovery from financial pressure.

My Notes

{ FIVE OF SWORDS }

The Five of Swords represents conflict, hostility and tension. Despite the fact that you think you've won, you might still lose in the big picture, because you have annoyed or hurt those that you have argued with, and as a result, you are on the road to isolating yourself. What is more important to you? Mutual progress, or winning?

{Zodiac} Aquarius {Element} Air {Planetary Ruler} Venus {Numerology} 5

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - tension, conflict, arguments, fights, irritability, wanting to be right. Career - workplace bully, intimidation, defensive attitudes, hostility. Finance - conflicts about money, being taken advantage of.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - getting back together, forgiveness, breakup.
Career - compromises, open dialogue, sabotage. Finance - loosening of financial tension, relief.

My Notes

{ SIX OF SWORDS }

The Six of Swords is all about moving on to calmer waters. However, this will most likely be a transition that forces you to leave something behind in order to move forward. Despite the sadness or difficulty in leaving, you need to remember that moving on is the ideal option for your future.

{Zodiac} Aquarius {Element} Air {Planetary Ruler} Mercury {Numerology} 6

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - moving on from relationship, reconciling after fight. Career - leaving stressful workplace, moving to new role. Finance - finding material stability again, learned lessons.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - can't move on, can't let go, haunted. Career - creating conflicts, self-sabotage, trapped at job. Finance - avoiding dealing with finances.

My Notes

{ SEVEN OF SWORDS }

The Seven of Swords depicts an energy of trickery, lies, scheming, betrayal and deception. Alternatively, you can ask yourself the question if whether escaping will solve this problem that you are trying to escape from and avoid facing.

{Zodiac} Aquarius {Element} Air {Planetary Ruler} Moon {Numerology} 7

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - lies and deception, affair, sparing feelings, feeling suspicious. Career - gossip, sabotage, jealousy at work, working strategically. Finance - shady business deals, fraud, theft, scams.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - lies revealed, end of playing games, dropping pretension. Career - liars exposed, consequences of actions, changing approach. Finance - consequences of dishonesty in finances.

My Notes

{ EIGHT OF SWORDS }

The Eight of Swords is a feeling of being trapped and victimised in a prison of self-imposed thoughts. You have probably handed over your personal power to someone else, and it isn't going so well. The good news is that you created this trap yourself, so you have the ability to free yourself.

{Zodiac} Gemini {Element} Air {Planetary Ruler} Jupiter {Numerology} 8

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - feeling trapped, suffocated, smothered, passive in love life. Career - dependence on job, can't change careers, fear of job changes. Finance - anxiety about money, can't see financial opportunity.
{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - clearer perspective of relationship, active role in love life. Career - new job to reach potential, freedom from anxiety, continued struggle. Finance - lessened anxiety, intensified anxiety, fears clouding truth

My Notes

{ NINE OF SWORDS }

The Nine of Swords is a card of fear and anxiety and negative thinking that is keeping you up at night. It connects with the destructive end of mental energies, the one which turns inward on itself, multiplies and festers.

{Zodiac} Gemini {Element} Air {Planetary Ruler} Mars {Numerology} 9

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - not trusting partner, suspicious of partner, regret from past. Career - anxiety, paranoia, stress from work, no coping mechanisms. Finance - panic about finances, all-consuming worries, feeling deprived

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - getting help from partner, alleviating stress by sharing. Career - clarity about work, finding peace, stresses becoming real. Finance - clarity about finances, peace, poverty, lack of resources.

My Notes

{ TEN OF SWORDS }

The Ten of Swords is a painful ending, a moment where you feel stabbed in the back and life couldn't get much worse. It depicts an extreme unforeseen force that has hit you like a tonne of bricks. It's here we are reminded that somethings are beyond our ability to change.

{Zodiac} Gemini {Element} Air {Planetary Ruler} Mercury {Numerology} 10

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - breakup, separation, sadness, grief, pain, infidelity. Career - loss of job, office politics, breakdown from stress, burnout. Finance - financial loss, failed investment.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - healing from past, putting relationship back together. Career - changed jobs, found less stressful work. Finance - avoided financial ruin or bankruptcy.

Queens are a beautiful mature energy who embodies the traits of her element and radiates that energy from the in side out. She a the living breathing personification. She leads by example by setting her intentions and beliefs and following through in alignment with her inner world. This is the feminine energy or Yin.

{ QUEEN OF SWORDS }

The Queen of Swords is an archetype of an older, wiser feminine intellect. She may come off as quite stern and emotionless but knows the importance of making judgements based on facts without relying on emotions. Above all, truth is important to her, so she feels no need to soften her comments, thoughts, or opinions.

{Zodiac} Libra {Element} Air {Planetary Ruler} N/A

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love -picky about lovers, independent partner, boundaries. Career - constructive criticism, wise guidance, respect in field. Finance - acting with logic and reason, financial clarity.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - trauma, toxic relationship, manipulation, cruelty. Career - cruel coworker, excessive negativity, poor communication. Finance - financial confusion, failure to make logical financial decisions.

My Notes

• Helpful Tip •

Kings are the mature energy who projects the energy of his suit outwardly in the world. He leads by action and allows others to follow. This is the masculine energy or Yang.

{ KING OF SWORDS }

The King of Swords is all about intellectual power, clarity of mind and clear judgment. Because he rules over the suit of swords, he has a special connection to rules, laws, and diplomacy, which are systems of logical thought applied and manifest on earth.

{Zodiac} Aquarius {Element} Air {Planet} N/A

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love -high standards for love, controlled emotions. Career - stern but righteous mentor, challenged to do your best. Finance - being disciplined with finances, acting logically.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - selfish, abusive lover, low standards for love. Career -dominating, power-hungry colleague, irrational work decisions. Finance - irrational financial decisions, lack of financial discipline.

My Notes

{ ACE OF PENTACLES }

Ace of Pentacles represents a new beginning - in the material world. It assures you that what's to come will bring great abundance and prosperity. Watering this seed has the potential to be very rewarding - for anything that is grown on this energy is meant to be stable, secure and give a good yield.

{Zodiac} Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn {Element} Earth
{Planetary Ruler} N/A {Numerology} 1

{Upright - Quick Read}

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - loss of emotional stability, money issues in relationship. Career - missed work opportunities, invested in wrong career. Finance - scarcity, bad financial decisions.

My Notes

{ TWO OF PENTACLES }

The Two of Pentacles is about balance. There's a possibility that you're trying hard to keep two aspects of your life in a delicate balance. There could also be two major factors you're deeply concerned about. While you may initially think it's best, multi-tasking may just worsen the situation.

{Zodiac} Capricorn {Element} Earth
{Planetary Ruler} Jupiter {Numerology} 2

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - balancing love / work / family, adapting to changes in love. Career - juggling work projects, being resourceful at work. Finance -tight finances, prioritizing bills, unstable finances.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - neglecting love, neglecting partner, not focused on love. Career -being overworked, too many projects, things falling through cracks. Finance - too many bills.

My Notes

{ THREE OF PENTACLES }

The Three of Pentacles represents the coming together of different kinds of knowledge in order to build something together -- collaboration, teamwork and respect from peers. Successful projects usually require different kinds of expertise, and at this moment, the Three of Pentacles means that all the skills required are coming together.

{Zodiac} Capricorn {Element} Earth
{Planetary Ruler} Mars {Numerology} 3

{Upright - Quick Read}

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - no longer feeling as isolated, repairing disconnect. Career -end of harships in career or wih collegues Finance - Debt recovery, bouncing back from financial loss and poverty mindset.

My Notes

{ SIX OF PENTACLES }

The Six of Pentacles suggests that you are in a secure enough position to give to others without affecting your own stability. As you can tell from the imagery in the card, the Six of Pentacles can be about charity. You can either be the man giving away money to the needy, or a beggar gratefully receiving what you need from wealthy donor.

{Zodiac} Taurus {Element} Earth {Planetary Ruler} Moon {Numerology} 6

{Upright - Quick Read}
Love - unfair power dynamics, taking advantage of love, controlling lover. Finance -financial support, donations.

{Reversed - Quick Read}
Love - overcoming jealousy, release from past lovers. Career -hidden agendas, quid pro quo, sucking up to bosses. Finance - lack of help, unfair loans, gifts with strings attached, resentment.

My Notes

{ SEVEN OF PENTACLES }

The Seven of Pentacles relates to long term investments and effort. If you have been putting in time and effort in your work, it signifies that your efforts are paying off now and in the future as well. It is also related to fear of failure. You do not know whether you are going to reap fruit from your hard work. It could also signify frustration when there is a delay.

{Zodiac} Taurus {Element} Earth {Planetary Ruler} Saturn {Numerology} 7

{Upright - Quick Read}

{ FINAL WORDS }

This beginners deck was made with the intentions of creating a spiritual tool for others to use in order to develop, practice and utilise their spiritual gifts and connection with the Divine through learning Tarot. It was fostered from a desire to create something accessible, spiritually nurturing and aesthetically gratifying that I personally would have been undeniably drawn to in my earlier stages of spiritual development, now in the present day, and would continue to treasure long into the future.

So, dear heart, I would like to recognise and acknowledge you. I respect wherever you are on your individual life path, and appreciate that your soul felt called to the energy of my project — so thank you, I trust that it will serve your spirit well and become a beautiful companion of yours for many moons to come!

With love and an abundance of gratitude,
- Britta
